

The Day of Pentecost

Cathedral Eucharist

Sunday 19 May 2024
10.30

Welcome to Sheffield Cathedral

The Cathedral is a community gathered round Christ in prayer, committed to practical caring and living well with God. Its doors are open every day, and our work and worship continue through the year.

The Cathedral clergy are pleased to make arrangements for individual conversations with people, or to hear confessions. The notes to kneel, sit, and stand are only suggestions: please feel able to adopt whatever posture you wish.

Please take your service booklet away with you.

We are delighted to welcome The Rt Revd Sophie Jelley, Bishop of Doncaster, to lead our service on this great Feast of Pentecost.

Livestreaming

This service will be livestreamed. If you do not wish to appear on the livestream, please sit in the seats in the south aisle. Signs will direct you to these seats.

Music during the service

At this service the choir will sing the Communion Service in C and F by Charles Villiers Stanford (1852-1924). The anthem is Come Holy Ghost by Thomas Attwood (1765-1838).

Giving to Sheffield Cathedral

The ministry at Sheffield Cathedral is only possible because of the generous support we receive from the congregation who give to the Cathedral in a variety of ways and for which we are very grateful. A collection will be taken during the offertory hymn to support the ministry of the Cathedral. Please use the gift aid envelopes provided if you are a UK tax payer. For more information please see the section on giving towards the back of the order of service.

Practicalities, accessibility and sustainability

You are kindly requested to refrain from making any audio or visual recording of any part of this service without the written permission of the Dean of Sheffield. This enables us to ensure that we are compliant with the General Data Protection Regulation.

Our service sheet is printed on paper which comes from sustainable forests.

Toilets, including accessible provision (using a RADAR key), are situated through the 1554 Coffee Shop, and on the left.

An induction loop is available for those who are hard of hearing. Please turn your hearing aid to the 'T' setting.

Large print copies of this booklet are available. Please ask the Stewards.

The Gathering

Please stand as the procession enters to sing:

Down Ampney

Come down, O Love divine, seek thou this soul of mine,
and visit it with thine own ardour glowing;
O Comforter, draw near,
within my heart appear,
and kindle it, thy holy flame bestowing.

O let it freely burn, till earthly passions turn to dust and ashes in its heat consuming; and let thy glorious light shine ever on my sight, and clothe me round, the while my path illuming.

Let holy charity mine outward vesture be,
and lowliness become mine inner clothing:
true lowliness of heart,
which takes the humbler part,
and o'er its own shortcomings weeps with loathing.

And so the yearning strong,
with which the soul will long,
shall far outpass the power of human telling;
for none can guess its grace, till he become the place wherein the Holy Spirit makes his dwelling.

Bianco da Siena (d.1434)

O Lord, the only-begotten Son, Jesu Christ;
O Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us.
Thou that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us.

through the merits of Christ Jesus our Saviour, who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

All

Amen.

Please sit.

The Liturgy of the Word

The New Testament Reading: Acts 2. 1 - 21

Reader A reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability.

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. Amazed and astonished, they asked, 'Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs—in our own languages we hear them speaking about God's deeds of power.' All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, 'What does this mean?' But others sneered and said, 'They are filled with new wine.'

But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them: 'Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o'clock in the morning. No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel:

“In the last days it will be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh,
and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions,
and your old men shall dream dreams.
Even upon my slaves, both men and women, in those days I will pour out my Spirit;
and they shall prophesy.
And I will show portents in the heaven above and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and smoky mist.
The sun shall be turned to darkness and the moon to blood, before the coming of the Lord's great and glorious day.
Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.”

Reader Let us wait upon the Lord;
All in whose word is our hope.

We keep silence together.

Please stand and turn to face the book of the Gospels.

The Holy Gospel: John 15.26-27; 16.4b-15

Choir Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia
All Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

Choir Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful people and kindle in them the fire of your love.

All Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

Deacon The Lord be with you
All And also with you.

Deacon Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.
All Glory to you, O Lord.

Deacon ‘When the Advocate comes, whom I will send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth who comes from the Father, he will testify on my behalf. You also are to testify because you have been with me from the beginning. But I have said these things to you so that when their hour comes you may remember that I told you about them.

‘I did not say these things to you from the beginning, because I was with you. But now I am going to him who sent me; yet none of you asks me, “Where are you going?” But because I have said these things to you, sorrow has filled your hearts. Nevertheless, I tell you the truth: it is to your advantage that I go away, for if I do not go away, the Advocate will not come to you; but if I go, I will send him to you. And when he comes, he will prove the world wrong about sin and righteousness and judgement: about sin, because they do not believe in me; about righteousness, because I am going to the Father and you will see me no longer; about judgement, because the ruler of this world has been condemned.

‘I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. He will glorify me, because he will take what is mine and declare it to you. All that the Father has is mine. For this reason I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you.

Deacon This is the Gospel of the Lord.
All Praise to you, O Christ.

Please sit.

The Sermon

The Right Revd Sophie Jelley
Bishop of Doncaster

Please stand.

The Nicene Creed

Bishop Let us declare our faith in God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

All We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, was incarnate from the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is worshipped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Please kneel or sit.

The Prayers of Intercession

The Deacon introduces the prayers, after each petition:

Intercessor The Lord is here,
All His spirit is with us.

All Spirit of the Living God,
Fall afresh on me,
Spirit of the Living God,
Fall afresh on me,
Break me, melt me, mould me, fill me,
Spirit of the Living God,
Fall afresh on me.

Daniel Iverson (1890-1977)

Intercessor Merciful Father,
All accept these prayers for the sake of your Son,
our Saviour Jesus Christ.
Amen.

Please stand.

The Liturgy of the Sacrament

The Peace

Bishop God has made us one in Christ.
He has set his seal upon us and, as a pledge of what is to come,
has given the Spirit to dwell in our hearts. Alleluia.

2 Corinthians 1.22

All The peace of the Lord be always with you.
and also with you.

Deacon Let us offer one another a sign of peace.

Please remain standing to sing, during which the altar is set with the gifts of bread and wine. All are welcome to make a gift to support the ministry of the Cathedral. Please use the gift aid envelopes provided if you are a UK tax payer and place your gift in the baskets when they are offered by the stewards.

My Jesus, my Saviour,
Lord there is none like you.
All of my days, I want to praise,
The wonders of your mighty love.

My comfort, my shelter,
Power of refuge and strength.
Let every breath, all that I am,
Never cease to worship you.

Shout to the Lord let us sing,
Power and majesty, praise to the King.
Mountains bow down and the seas will roar,
At the sound of your Name.
I'll sing for Joy at the works of your hands.
Forever I'll love you, forever I'll stand.
Nothing compares to the promise,
I have in you.

The Eucharistic Prayer

Bishop
All

The Lord be with you
and also with you.

Bishop
All

Lift up your hearts.
We lift them to the Lord.

Bishop
All

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give thanks and praise.

Bishop

It is indeed right, it is our duty and our joy, always and everywhere to give you thanks, holy Father, almighty and everlasting God, through Jesus Christ, your only Son our Lord.

This day we give you thanks because in fulfilment of your promise you pour out your Spirit upon us, filling us with your gifts, leading us into all truth, and uniting peoples of many tongues in the confession of one faith.

Your Spirit gives us grace to call you Father, to proclaim your gospel to all nations and to serve you as a royal priesthood.

Therefore we join our voices with angels and archangels, and with all those in whom the Spirit dwells,
to proclaim the glory of your name, for ever praising you and saying:

Choir Holy, holy, holy Lord God of hosts, heaven and earth are full of thy glory:
glory be to thee, O Lord most High. Amen.

Blessed is he that cometh
in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

Bishop We praise and bless you, loving Father,
through Jesus Christ, our Lord;
and as we obey his command,
send your Holy Spirit, that broken bread and wine outpoured may be for us the body and blood of your dear Son.

On the night before he died he had supper with his friends and, taking bread, he praised you.
He broke the bread, gave it to them and said:
Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you;
do this in remembrance of me.

Bishop When supper was ended he took the cup of wine.
Again he praised you, gave it to them and said:
Drink this, all of you;
this is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins.
Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.

So, Father, we remember all that Jesus did,
in him we plead with confidence his sacrifice made once for all upon the cross.
Bringing before you the bread of life and cup of salvation, we proclaim his death and resurrection until he comes in glory.

Deacon Jesus Christ is Lord:
All Lord, by your cross and resurrection
you have set us free.
You are the Saviour of the world.

Bishop Lord of all life,
help us to work together for that day when your kingdom comes and justice and mercy will be seen in all the earth.

Look with favour on your people, gather us in your loving arms and bring us with the Blessed Virgin Mary, Saint Peter, Saint Paul and all the saints to feast at your table in heaven.

Through Christ, and with Christ, and in Christ,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
all honour and glory are yours, O loving Father, for ever and ever

All Amen.

We keep silence. Please kneel or sit.

The Lord's Prayer

Bishop Being made one by the power of the Spirit, let us pray with confidence as our Saviour has taught us:

All Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come;
thy will be done;
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation;
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,
the power and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

Bishop We break this bread to share in the body of Christ.

All Though we are many, we are one body, because we all share in one bread.

The Giving of Communion

Bishop Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.
All Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Choir O Lamb of God that takest away the sins of the world,
have mercy upon us.

O Lamb of God that takest away the sins of the world,
have mercy upon us.

O Lamb of God that takest away the sins of the world,
grant us thy peace.

We welcome all Christians, including baptized children of any age, to receive Holy Communion at Sheffield Cathedral. Gluten free wafers are available, please ask the priest as you approach to receive Holy Communion.

If you do not wish to receive Holy Communion, you are invited to come forward for a blessing. If you wish to receive a blessing, please bring this booklet with you and hold it so that it can be clearly seen by the ministers.

During communion the Choir sing:

Come, Holy Ghost, our souls inspire,
And lighten with celestial fire;
Thou the anointing Spirit art,
Who dost thy sevenfold gifts impart:

Thy blessed unction from above
Is comfort, life and fire of love;
Enable with perpetual light
The dullness of our blinded sight:

Anoint and cheer our soiled face
With the abundance of thy grace:
Keep far our foes, give peace at home;
Where thou art guide no ill can come.

Teach us to know the Father, Son,
And Thee, of Both, to be but One;
That through the ages all along
This may be our endless song,

Praise to thy eternal merit,
Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Amen

Music: Thomas Attwood (1765-1838)

The Prayer after Communion

Bishop Let us pray.

Please stand.

Faithful God,
who fulfilled the promises of Easter by sending us your Holy Spirit and opening to every race and nation
the way of life eternal:
open our lips by your Spirit,
that every tongue may tell of your glory;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

All Almighty God,
we thank you for feeding us with the body and blood of your Son Jesus Christ.
Through him we offer you our souls and bodies to be a living sacrifice.
Send us out in the power of your Spirit to live and work to your praise and glory. Amen.

All Thanks be to God. Alleluia, alleluia.

Please remain standing to sing:

O Lord my God, when I in awesome wonder Consider all the works thy hand hath made,
I see the stars, I hear the mighty thunder,
Thy pow'r throughout the universe displayed.

*Then sings my soul, my Savior-God, to thee,
"How great thou art! How great thou art!"
Then sings my soul, my Savior-God to thee,
"How great thou art! How great thou art!"*

When through the woods and forest glades I wander,
And hear the birds sing sweetly in the trees;
When I look down from lofty mountain grandeur
And hear the brook and feel the gentle breeze, [Refrain]

And when I think that God, his Son not sparing, Sent him to die, I scarce can take it in,
That on the cross my burden gladly bearing
He bled and died to take away my sin. [Refrain]

When Christ shall come with shout of acclamation
And take me home, what joy shall fill my heart!
Then I shall bow in humble adoration
And there proclaim: "My God, how great thou art!"

Geoffrey Albiston, one of our regular worshippers here at the cathedral has recently become a Companion of the Community of the Resurrection. This is the community of monks based at Mirfield in West Yorkshire. Many religious communities have lay people who support them with prayer and choose to follow a rule of life whilst living and working at home.

The Community website describes Companions as:

Companions of the Community of the Resurrection live away from Mirfield but share in CR's Charism and are committed to a Rule of Life.

The Companions are friends of the Community. They support – and are supported by – the work and mission of CR, following a routine of life of daily prayer, worship, witness and service. Many who come to know the Community value sharing its work and Charism in their own lives and locations. If you wish to know more about supporting religious communities then please speak to Geoffrey, Sister Jackie or one of the clergy.

The Feast of St Peter and Paul This year we will be celebrating our Patronal Festival on Sunday 23rd June at 10.30am. We are delighted that Tim Renshaw, CEO of the Archer Project, has agreed to come and preach for us. This will be a wonderful opportunity for us to celebrate together as a community and rejoice in our shared faith and humanity. If anyone would like to offer a short testimony, or creative offering of song or dance this day as part of the celebration of our wonderful diversity, please speak to Dean Abi or Canon Justin. There will be extra special refreshments after the service.

There will also be Solemn Evensong at 4.00pm when we will be joined by the Revd Dr Matt Bullimore as our preacher (Chaplain of Corpus Christi College, Cambridge) and the service will be followed by the long awaited launch of Margaret Garner's book on the stained glass windows of Sheffield Cathedral. Again there will be celebration refreshments after this service.

Schools Singing Update

Children in Deepcar this week started to learn Litany to the Holy Spirit by Peter Hurford. The school hall had that morning been used for SATs. As Year 3 sang, Year 6 children were wandering in and out of the hall. It was our prayer that the piece would bring some comfort to any who were worried about their exams. Singing unlocks so much more than a knowledge of music and blesses us in ways which are hard to put into words. We are asking the congregation for prayer and financial support if possible. For further information, contact music@sheffield-cathedral.org.uk . In order to give, you can either scan the QR code, or go on the website <https://www.stewardship.org.uk/pages/sheffieldcathedralSSP> or donate directly into the perspex box near the entrance.

Choral Directors

Sheffield Cathedral is looking for two outstanding choral leaders to deliver the Schools Singing Programme across the city as well as supporting progressive musical training across a diverse range of age groups. As one of the first Anglican Cathedrals to join the National Schools Singing Programme with a bold ambition to put music education at the heart of our mission and ministry, we are looking for musicians who will:

- Go into schools in our city and region developing singing skills with children, especially in the most deprived parts of the city and region.
- Develop our musical work with young people at Sheffield Cathedral.
- Be part of a new Music Department who are passionate about singing and will lead our worship with joy and skill

Meet the new members of our team!

Genevieve Langdon. Gen is an ordinand who is training for priesthood at St Hild College in Sheffield. She says: 'I am excited to have joined the Canon Missioner's team and I will be training here until I am ordained in June 2026. I will be working with Diddy Disciples, Young Adults and on missional projects as they unfold in Cathedral life, as well as being part of the worshipping life of the Cathedral Church. I am married to my long-suffering husband Gareth and have two sons, David and Jonty. I also work as a Professor in the Engineering Faculty at the University of Sheffield, teaching students why buildings don't fall down and researching why explosions are bad news. I also like reading, writing poetry and walking in the sunshine.'

Emily McDonald. Emily is our new curate, having trained for ministry at Cranmer Hall in Durham. She says: 'Hello! I'm Emily and I'm delighted to be coming to serve my curacy with you this summer. I grew up in Woodlands in Doncaster and have spent the last three years training for ordination in Durham. If nothing else, this has trained me for the hills in Sheffield! I'm really looking forward to meeting you all and getting involved in the life and ministry of the Cathedral.'

Charlotte Roberts. Charlotte is our new Schools Engagement Officer for the Sheffield Cathedral. She says: 'I have worked in Education for 16 years, predominantly as a primary school teacher in a large inner-city school. I have a passion for working with children and I enjoy using my creativity to bring new and exciting opportunities to all the children I work with. I'm hoping to offer the children of Sheffield an opportunity to visit a place of awe and wonder, whilst learning about the role of the Cathedral for the people of Sheffield through history. I hope to make the school visits relevant to all children, regardless of faith and to ensure that all the children leave the Cathedral with a desire to return and continue discovering all that the Cathedral has to offer.'
