

The Day of Pentecost

Cathedral Evensong

Sunday 19 May 2024
16.00

Welcome to Sheffield Cathedral

The Cathedral is a community gathered round Christ in prayer, committed to practical caring and living well with God. Its doors are open every day, and our work and worship continue through the year.

The Cathedral clergy are pleased to make arrangements for individual conversations with people, or to hear confessions. The notes to kneel, sit, and stand are only suggestions: please feel able to adopt whatever posture you wish.

Please take your service booklet away with you.

Livestreaming

This service will be livestreamed. If you do not wish to appear on the livestream, please sit in the seats in the south aisle. Signs will direct you to these seats.

Music during the service

The introit is a Plainsong setting of the Veni Sancte Spiritus. The responses are sung to a setting by Richard Shephard, 1949-2021. The Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis are the setting in B minor by Hugh Blair 1864-1932, and the anthem this evening is The Spirit of the Lord by Edward Elgar, 1857-1934.

Giving to Sheffield Cathedral

The ministry at Sheffield Cathedral is only possible because of the generous support we receive from the congregation who give to the Cathedral in a variety of ways and for which we are very grateful. A collection will be taken during the offertory hymn to support the ministry of the Cathedral. Please use the gift aid envelopes provided if you are a UK tax payer. For more information please see the section on giving towards the back of the order of service.

Practicalities, accessibility and sustainability

You are kindly requested to refrain from making any audio or visual recording of any part of this service without the written permission of the Dean of Sheffield. This enables us to ensure that we are compliant with the General Data Protection Regulation.

Our service sheet is printed on paper which comes from sustainable forests.

Toilets, including accessible provision (using a RADAR key), are situated through the 1554 Coffee Shop, and on the left.

An induction loop is available for those who are hard of hearing. Please turn your hearing aid to the 'T' setting.

Large print copies of this booklet are available. Please ask the Stewards.

The Order for Evening Prayer

The Introit

Please remain seated as the Choir sings:

Veni, Sancte Spiritus, et emitte caelitus
lucis tuae radium.

Come, Holy Spirit, and send forth from heaven
your radiant light.

Veni, pater pauperum,
veni, dator munerum,
veni, lumen cordium.

Come, father of the poor,
come, gift giver,
come, light of hearts.

Consolator optime,
dulcis hospes animae,
dulce refrigerium.

Greatest comforter,
sweet host of the soul,
sweet refresher.

In labore requies,
in aestu temperies,
in fletu solatium.

In work, rest;
in heat, cooling;
in tears, solace.

O lux beatissima,
reple cordis intima
tuorum fidelium.

O light most blessed,
replenish the innermost hearts of your faithful.

Sine tuo numine,
nihil est in homine,
nihil est innoxium.

Without your divine will,
there is nothing in us,
nothing that is harmless.

Lava quod est sordidum,
riga quod est aridum,
sana quod est saucium.

Clean what is uncleared,
moisten what is parched,
cure what is stricken.

Flecte quod est rigidum,
fove quod est frigidum,
rege quod est devium.

Bend what is rigid,
warm what is frigid,
rein in what is devious.

Da tuis fidelibus,
in te confidentibus,
sacrum septenarium.

Give to your faithful,
who confide in you,
the sevenfold holy gift.

Da virtutis meritum,
da salutis exitum,
da perenne gaudio.

Give virtue's reward,
give salvation's end,
give joy eternal.

Amen. Alleluia

Amen. Alleluia.

Please stand as the procession moves to the front of the Cathedral.

The Confession and Absolution

Minister God so loved the world that he gave his only Son Jesus Christ to save us from our sins,
to be our advocate in heaven,
and to bring us to eternal life.
Let us confess our sins in penitence and faith, firmly resolved to keep God's commandments and to live in love and peace with all.

Please sit or kneel.

All Most merciful God,
Father of our Lord Jesus Christ,
we confess that we have sinned
in thought, word and deed.
We have not loved thee with our whole heart.
We have not loved our neighbours as ourselves.
In thy mercy
forgive what we have been,
help us to amend what we are,
and direct what we shall be;
that we may do justly,
love mercy,
and walk humbly with thee, our God.
Amen.

Minister Almighty God, our heavenly Father, who of his great mercy hath promised forgiveness of sins to all them that with hearty repentance and true faith turn unto him:
have mercy upon you;
pardon and deliver you from all your sins;
confirm and strengthen you in all goodness;
and bring you to everlasting life;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

The Preces

Minister O Lord, open thou our lips.
Choir And our mouth shall shew forth thy praise.

Minister O God, make speed to save us.
Choir O Lord, make haste to help us.

Please stand.

Minister Glory be to the Father, and to the Son,
and to the Holy Ghost;
Choir As it was in the beginning, is now,
and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Minister Praise ye the Lord.
Choir The Lord's Name be praised.

Please sit as the psalm is sung by the Choir.

The Psalm: 139 verses 1 – 11

Choir

O Lord, thou hast searched me out and known me :
thou knowest my down-sitting and mine up-rising, thou understandest my thoughts long before.

Thou art about my path, and about my bed :
and spiest out all my ways.

For lo, there is not a word in my tongue :
but thou, O Lord, knowest it altogether.

Thou hast fashioned me behind and before :
and laid thine hand upon me.

Such knowledge is too wonderful and excellent for me :
I cannot attain unto it.

Whither shall I go then from thy Spirit :
or whither shall I go then from thy presence?

If I climb up into heaven, thou art there :
if I go down to hell, thou art there also.

If I take the wings of the morning :
and remain in the uttermost parts of the sea;

Even there also shall thy hand lead me :
and thy right hand shall hold me.

If I say, Peradventure the darkness shall cover me :
then shall my night be turned to day.

Yea, the darkness is no darkness with thee, but the night is as clear as the day :
the darkness and light to thee are both alike.

Please stand.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son :
and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be :
world without end. Amen.

Please sit.

The First Reading: Ezekiel 36. 22 – 28

Reader A reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah.

Therefore say to the house of Israel, Thus says the Lord God: It is not for your sake, O house of Israel, that I am about to act, but for the sake of my holy name, which you have profaned among the nations to which you came. I will sanctify my great name, which has been profaned among the nations, and which you have profaned among them; and the nations shall know that I am the Lord, says the Lord God, when through you I display my holiness before their eyes. I will take you from the nations, and gather you from all the countries, and bring you into your own land. I will sprinkle clean water upon you, and you shall be clean from all your uncleannesses, and from all your idols I will cleanse you. A new heart I will give you, and a new spirit I will put within you; and I will remove from your body the heart of stone and give you a heart of flesh. I will put my spirit within you, and make you follow my statutes and be careful to observe my ordinances. Then you shall live in the land that I gave to your ancestors; and you shall be my people, and I will be your God.

Reader Here ends the first reading.

Please stand to sing

Carlisle

Breathe on me, Breath of God,
Fill me with life anew,
That I may love what thou dost love,
And do what thou wouldst do.

Breathe on me, Breath of God,
Until my heart is pure,
Until with thee I will one will,
To do and to endure.

Breathe on me, Breath of God,
Till I am wholly thine,
Until this earthly part of me
Glows with the fire divine.

Breathe on me, Breath of God,
So shall I never die,
But live with thee the perfect life
Of thine eternity.

Edwin Hatch, 1835-1889

The Magnificat

Please stand as the Choir sings the Magnificat.

Choir My soul doth magnify the Lord:
and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour.
For he hath regarded:
the lowliness of his hand-maiden.
For behold, from henceforth:
all generations shall call me blessed.
For he that is mighty hath magnified me:
and holy is his name.
And his mercy is on them that fear him:
throughout all generations.
He hath shewed strength with his arm:
he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.
He hath put down the mighty from their seat:
and hath exalted the humble and meek.
He hath filled the hungry with good things:
and the rich he hath sent empty away.
He remembering his mercy hath holpen his servant Israel:
as he promised to our forefathers,
Abraham and his seed for ever.

Luke 1. 46-55

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son:
and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be:
world without end. Amen.

Please sit.

The Second Reading: Acts 2. 22 – 38

Reader A reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

'You that are Israelites, listen to what I have to say: Jesus of Nazareth, a man attested to you by God with deeds of power, wonders, and signs that God did through him among you, as you yourselves know— this man, handed over to you according to the definite plan and foreknowledge of God, you crucified and killed by the hands of those outside the law. But God raised him up, having freed him from death, because it was impossible for him to be held in its power. For David says concerning him,

"I saw the Lord always before me, for he is at my right hand so that I will not be shaken;
therefore my heart was glad, and my tongue rejoiced;
moreover, my flesh will live in hope.
For you will not abandon my soul to Hades, or let your Holy One experience corruption.
You have made known to me the ways of life;
you will make me full of gladness with your presence."

'Fellow Israelites, I may say to you confidently of our ancestor David that he both died and was buried, and his tomb is with us to this day. Since he was a prophet, he knew that God had sworn with an oath to him that he would put one of his descendants on his throne. Foreseeing this, David spoke of the resurrection of the Messiah, saying,

“He was not abandoned to Hades, nor did his flesh experience corruption.”

This Jesus God raised up, and of that all of us are witnesses. Being therefore exalted at the right hand of God, and having received from the Father the promise of the Holy Spirit, he has poured out this that you both see and hear. For David did not ascend into the heavens, but he himself says,

“The Lord said to my Lord,
'Sit at my right hand,
until I make your enemies your footstool.' ”

Therefore let the entire house of Israel know with certainty that God has made him both Lord and Messiah, this Jesus whom you crucified.'

Now when they heard this, they were cut to the heart and said to Peter and to the other apostles, 'Brothers, what should we do?' Peter said to them, 'Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ so that your sins may be forgiven; and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit.

Reader Here ends the second reading.

The Nunc Dimittis

Please stand as the Choir sings the Nunc Dimittis.

Choir Lord, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace:
according to thy word.
For mine eyes have seen: thy salvation;
Which thou hast prepared: before the face of all people;
to be a light to lighten the Gentiles:
and to be the glory of thy people Israel.

Luke 2. 29-32

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son:
and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be:
world without end. Amen.

Please remain standing.

The Apostles' Creed

Minister
All

I believe in God
the Father Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth:

And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord:
who was conceived by the Holy Ghost,
born of the Virgin Mary:
suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried:
he descended into hell;
the third day he rose again from the dead:
he ascended into heaven,
and sitteth on the right hand of God
the Father Almighty:
from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost:
the holy Catholic Church;
the Communion of Saints:
the Forgiveness of sins:
the Resurrection of the body,
and the Life everlasting. Amen.

Please remain standing.

The Responses

Minister
Choir
Minister

The Lord be with you.
And with thy spirit.
Let us pray.

Please sit or kneel for the Responses.

Minister
Choir
Minister

Lord, have mercy upon us.
Christ, have mercy upon us.
Lord, have mercy upon us.

The Lord's Prayer

Choir

Our Father,
which art in heaven,
Hallowed be thy name;
Thy kingdom come;
Thy will be done;
in earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
As we forgive them that trespass against us;
And lead us not into temptation,
But deliver us from evil. Amen.

Minister O Lord, shew thy mercy upon us.
Choir And grant us thy salvation.

Minister O Lord, save the King.
Choir And mercifully hear us when we call upon thee.

Minister Endue thy Ministers with righteousness.
Choir And make thy chosen people joyful.

Minister O Lord, save thy people.
Choir And bless thine inheritance.

Minister Give peace in our time, O Lord.
Choir Because there is none other that fighteth for us, but only thou, O God.

Minister O God, make clean our hearts within us.
Choir And take not thy Holy Spirit from us.

The Collect of the Day

Minister O God, who as at this time didst teach the hearts of thy faithful people, by the sending to them the light of thy Holy Spirit; Grant us by the same Spirit to have a right judgement in all things, and evermore to rejoice in his holy comfort; through the merits of Christ Jesus our Saviour, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the same Spirit, one God, world without end.

Choir Amen.

The Collect for Peace

Minister O God,
from whom all holy desires, all good counsels,
and all just works do proceed;
give unto thy servants that peace which the world cannot give;
that both our hearts may be set to obey thy commandments, and also that by thee we being defended from the fear of our enemies may pass our time in rest and quietness;
through the merits of Jesus Christ our Saviour
Amen.

Choir

The Collect for Aid against all Perils

Minister Lighten our darkness, we beseech thee, O Lord;
and by thy great mercy, defend us from all perils and dangers of this night;
for the love of thy only Son,
our Saviour, Jesus Christ.

Choir Amen.

The Anthem

Please sit as the Choir sings:

The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because He hath anointed me to preach the Gospel to the poor:
He hath sent me to heal the broken-hearted,
to preach deliverance to the captives,
and recovering of sight to the blind,
to preach the acceptable year of the Lord;
To give unto them that mourn a garland for ashes,
the oil of joy for mourning,
the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness;
that they might be called trees of righteousness,
the planting of the Lord, that he might be glorified.
For as the earth bringeth forth her bud, and as the garden causeth the things that are sown in it to spring forth;
so the Lord God will cause righteousness and praise to spring forth before all the nations.

Edward Elgar, 1857-1934

The Sermon

The Very Revd Abi Thompson
Dean of Sheffield

Please remain seated or kneel.

The Prayers

The minister leads the prayers which end with:

All

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God,
and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost,
be with us all evermore.
Amen.

Please stand to sing.

Sun of my soul, thou Saviour dear,
 It is not night if thou be near:
 O may no earth-born cloud arise
 To hide thee from thy servant's eyes.

When the soft dews of kindly sleep
 My weary eyelids gently steep,
 Be my last thought, how sweet to rest
 For ever on my Saviour's breast.

Abide with me from morn till eve,
 For without thee I cannot live;
 Abide with me when night is nigh,
 For without thee I dare not die.

If some poor wand'ring child of thine
 Have spurned to-day the voice divine,
 Now, Lord, the gracious work begin;
 Let him no more lie down in sin.

Watch by the sick; enrich the poor
 With blessings from thy boundless store;
 Be every mourner's sleep to-night
 Like infant's slumbers, pure and light.

Come near and bless us when we wake,
 Ere through the world our way we take;
 Till in the ocean of thy love
 We lose ourselves in heaven above.

John Keble, 1792-1866

Please remain standing.

The Blessing

The Minster pronounces the blessing.

All

Amen.

Please remain standing as the procession leaves.

Sheffield Cathedral Notices

Fr Geoffrey Harbord celebrates his 40th anniversary of priesthood on 1 July (all are welcome to his celebration Eucharist at 19.30 that day!) Shortly afterwards he retires from his role at the Cathedral, and we would like to mark his long service to this Cathedral and the Diocese of Sheffield with a special gift. If you would like to make a donation, you are welcome to put cash in an envelope and mark it 'Fr Geoffrey gift' and give it to one of our Wardens – Sally Holding and Angela Rees – or you can donate directly via the bank to the Cathedral's account (Barclays Bank Plc, account name: Sheffield Cathedral Chapter, sort code: 20-76-92, account number: 43730492). Please use reference GHGIFT.

Young Adults' Group meets today, Sunday 19 May, at 17.30. Our Young Adults group is designed to connect, equip, and encourage those between the ages of 18-30.

The group meets twice a month on the 1st, and 3rd Sunday: once for Bible study and once for an informal social gathering. Meetings are on Sunday evenings from 17.30 to 18.45, following on from Evensong in the Cathedral. All are welcome to all sessions, whether you've ever been to the Cathedral before or not. There is no preparation or prior knowledge required for the Bible study; please join the group at any time if you're interested to learn more about the Bible and the Christian faith. If you have any questions about the group, please email justin.dodd@sheffield-cathedral.org.uk

The Archer Project are currently in short supply of the following items:

Bath/beach towels, Washing powder, Men's trainers (size 8, 9 and 10), Men's trousers (size 30, 32 and 34 inches), Men's boxers (size S and M), Cereal, Snacks (chocolate, crisps, biscuits, etc.), Coffee, Pot noodles, Sugar

Donations can be dropped off to The Archer Project, Church Street, S1 1HA (at the Campo Lane entrance behind Sheffield Cathedral), between 08.30-13.00 on Monday-Friday.

You can also donate supplies through the charity's Amazon wishlist, using the address above, at: www.amazon.co.uk/hz/wishlist/ls/90758UHHIGQK

Individual items are great for food parcels, wholesale items help keep our kitchen running.
Please ensure all food stuffs are well in-date before donating.

Thank you so much to everyone for your ongoing support!

Volunteering We are looking for people to volunteer at the Sunday morning services by welcoming the congregation into the Cathedral, and serving tea and coffee after services. Please get in in contact via enquiries@sheffield-cathedral.org.uk with the subject line "Sunday Volunteering" or speak to Canon Justin for more information or if you think that you may be able to help out.

The Meditation Group which stopped meeting following COVID, has now reconvened but in a different format. We meet in the Crypt Chapel on the second Monday of each month at 13.00 for half an hour's silent meditation. We no longer have a Guide so use a gong at the beginning and end of the half hour. Anyone is welcome to join us. There is no commitment or registration, just come when you can.

Geoffrey Albiston, one of our regular worshippers here at the cathedral has recently become a Companion of the Community of the Resurrection. This is the community of monks based at Mirfield in West Yorkshire. Many religious communities have lay people who support them with prayer and choose to follow a rule of life whilst living and working at home.

The Community website describes Companions as:

Companions of the Community of the Resurrection live away from Mirfield but share in CR's Charism and are committed to a Rule of Life.

The Companions are friends of the Community. They support – and are supported by – the work and mission of CR, following a routine of life of daily prayer, worship, witness and service. Many who come to know the Community value sharing its work and Charism in their own lives and locations. If you wish to know more about supporting religious communities then please speak to Geoffrey, Sister Jackie or one of the clergy.

The Feast of St Peter and Paul This year we will be celebrating our Patronal Festival on Sunday 23rd June at 10.30am. We are delighted that Tim Renshaw, CEO of the Archer Project, has agreed to come and preach for us. This will be a wonderful opportunity for us to celebrate together as a community and rejoice in our shared faith and humanity. If anyone would like to offer a short testimony, or creative offering of song or dance this day as part of the celebration of our wonderful diversity, please speak to Dean Abi or Canon Justin. There will be extra special refreshments after the service.

There will also be Solemn Evensong at 4.00pm when we will be joined by the Revd Dr Matt Bullimore as our preacher (Chaplain of Corpus Christi College, Cambridge) and the service will be followed by the long awaited launch of Margaret Garner's book on the stained glass windows of Sheffield Cathedral. Again there will be celebration refreshments after this service.

Corpus Christi 2nd June 2024 We are delighted that at 4pm on Sunday 2nd June the congregation of St Marie's Roman Catholic Congregation will visit this Cathedral as part of their procession of the Blessed Sacrament around the City. We will join together in a short service praying for Christian unity which will include singing from some of our Choral Scholars along with members of the choir of St Marie's and Benediction and we are then warmly invited to join the procession on to St Marie's where there will be a final Benediction. I do encourage us all to come together for this hopeful act of ecumenical worship where we will pray that we would all become one body.

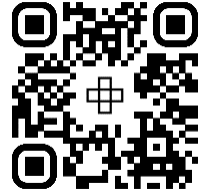

Orders of Service We have changed the way we send out our electronic communications. For those of you who receive our weekly orders of service you will need to sign up through the link below to continue to receive them: <http://eepurl.com/iw8Mil>. If you would like to start receiving the orders of service via email, please use the link above or scan the QR code.

Music at the Cathedral

Schools Singing Update

Children in Deepcar this week started to learn Litany to the Holy Spirit by Peter Hurford. The school hall had that morning been used for SATs. As Year 3 sang, Year 6 children were wandering in and out of the hall. It was our prayer that the piece would bring some comfort to any who were worried about their exams. Singing unlocks so much more than a knowledge of music and blesses us in ways which are hard to put into words. We are asking the congregation for prayer and financial support if possible. For further information, contact music@sheffield-cathedral.org.uk . In order to give, you can either scan the QR code, or go on the website <https://www.stewardship.org.uk/pages/sheffieldcathedralSSP> or donate directly into the perspex box near the entrance.

Sunday Organ Recitals, take place every week at 17.15. This Sunday we look forward to welcoming our very own Director of Music, Tom Daggett. Tom will play a wide-ranging programme including an operatic overture by Meyerbeer, Franck's epic Choral in A minor, and some lighter music by William Lloyd-Webber.

Wednesday Lunchtime Recitals series

The next Recital will be on 8 May at 13.00 and there will be an exciting opportunity to hear Crescent Recorders. There will be a retiring collection for the Schools Singing Programme. All are welcome.

Little Lights Choir: our exciting new choir for children aged 4-9 takes place every Sunday starting at 09.30. If your little one loves to sing, why not sign up for our mailing list and be the first to know more about Little Lights Choir via this link <http://eepurl.com/ivRv3o> or by using the QR code on the right.

Community Choir: new members to our Community Choir are very welcome. The choir sings a wide variety of musical styles, both sacred and secular. The choir meet in the nave after the Sunday morning service at 12.15 leaving plenty of time for coffee after the service. No previous singing experience necessary! If you would like to find out more do speak to Dean Abi or Tom.

Rhythm Time Music makes music fun for both you and your little one with plenty of singing, dancing, and lots of noise! These drop-in classes are specially designed to aid your little ones learning and development during the most important stages of their lives, through sensory musical activities as they grow with confidence and creativity. These weekly drop-in classes will be run by Beth who, prior to running Sheffield and North Derbyshire's Rhythm Time Classes, was a professional singer and Head of Music at a secondary school. These sessions will run at 10.30 and 13.00 every Thursday during term time. Parents are welcome to get involved and join the session for some musical fun or relax with a coffee.

Baton of Hope Conference 2024: Making Suicide Prevention Everyone's Business. More than 6,000 people across the UK and the Republic of Ireland take their own lives each year. Join us on 16 May at the Octagon Centre, Sheffield, and help change the way suicide is seen, talked about and treated. We're bringing together people who care: to build connections and raise awareness, share facts, and debunk myths, develop a new inclusive language around suicide, and support open, honest, caring conversations. For more info, or to buy tickets please visit <http://tinyurl.com/ybank3fb>

Environmental News

We are a bronze Eco Church! We are delighted to announce we have been awarded with a bronze Eco Church award following our recent application, assessing how our church makes positive impacts on the environment in all aspects of cathedral life. We are now making plans to become a silver and eventually gold Eco Church, but we need your help! If you have any ideas or are passionate about making an environmental difference, please email enquiries@sheffield-cathedral.org.uk - we'd love to hear your suggestions! Vacancies & Appointments

Organ Scholarships

Sheffield Cathedral are looking a Senior Organ Scholar (aged 18+), starting immediately, in an exciting time of growth and development for the new Cathedral music department.

The Senior Organ Scholarship is aimed at an undergraduate or postgraduate organist, likely studying at one of the Sheffield universities. The Senior Organ Scholar would accompany the Cathedral Choir for evensong on Tuesday evenings, as well as receiving professional development support tailored around the individual candidate.

For more info please visit:

<https://www.sheffieldcathedral.org/recruitment/2023/10/17/organ-scholarships>

Choral Directors

Sheffield Cathedral is looking for two outstanding choral leaders to deliver the Schools Singing Programme across the city as well as supporting progressive musical training across a diverse range of age groups. As one of the first Anglican Cathedrals to join the National Schools Singing Programme with a bold ambition to put music education at the heart of our mission and ministry, we are looking for musicians who will:

- Go into schools in our city and region developing singing skills with children, especially in the most deprived parts of the city and region.
- Develop our musical work with young people at Sheffield Cathedral.
- Be part of a new Music Department who are passionate about singing and will lead our worship with joy and skill

For more info please visit: <https://www.sheffieldcathedral.org/recruitment/choral-director>

Meet the new members of our team!

Genevieve Langdon. Gen is an ordinand who is training for priesthood at St Hild College in Sheffield. She says: 'I am excited to have joined the Canon Missioner's team and I will be training here until I am ordained in June 2026. I will be working with Diddy Disciples, Young Adults and on missional projects as they unfold in Cathedral life, as well as being part of the worshipping life of the Cathedral Church. I am married to my long-suffering husband Gareth and have two sons, David and Jonty. I also work as a Professor in the Engineering Faculty at the University of Sheffield, teaching students why buildings don't fall down and researching why explosions are bad news. I also like reading, writing poetry and walking in the sunshine.'

Emily McDonald. Emily is our new curate, having trained for ministry at Cranmer Hall in Durham. She says: 'Hello! I'm Emily and I'm delighted to be coming to serve my curacy with you this summer. I grew up in Woodlands in Doncaster and have spent the last three years training for ordination in Durham. If nothing else, this has trained me for the hills in Sheffield! I'm really looking forward to meeting you all and getting involved in the life and ministry of the Cathedral.'

Charlotte Roberts. Charlotte is our new Schools Engagement Officer for the Sheffield Cathedral. She says: 'I have worked in Education for 16 years, predominantly as a primary school teacher in a large inner-city school. I have a passion for working with children and I enjoy using my creativity to bring new and exciting opportunities to all the children I work with. I'm hoping to offer the children of Sheffield an opportunity to visit a place of awe and wonder, whilst learning about the role of the Cathedral for the people of Sheffield through history. I hope to make the school visits relevant to all children, regardless of faith and to ensure that all the children leave the Cathedral with a desire to return and continue discovering all that the Cathedral has to offer.'

Join us for a unique night of football memories, stories and insight with author and former FIFA and Olympic Referee Keith Hackett.

Respected referee Keith is acknowledged to be one of the top 100 referees of all time AND Paul Trevillion, a globally acclaimed artist, author, inventor, and motivator. Now 90 years old, Trevillion's art continues to inspire generations of school children, artists, and illustrators. From the 1960s onwards Trevillion's dynamic art featured in almost every national newspaper in the UK, and he has a wealth of stories about sports stars and celebrities whom he has featured in his illustrations and artwork.

Paul and Keith have collaborated on many projects including the long-standing cult classic cartoon quiz 'You Are The Ref'. Paul also has met and drawn a myriad of sporting and celebrity personalities and continues to produce world-class artwork. This event will take place in the wonderful Sheffield Cathedral. Book early as this will be a 'hot ticket'.

A celebration of the 2014 the ground-breaking film “Interstellar” which was nominated for best Original Score at the Academy Awards.

Join us for this very special concert marking the 10th anniversary of the release of Christopher Nolan’s epic film Interstellar. Roger Sayer, the organist on the original film soundtrack, will perform a suite of Hans Zimmer’s music from the film’s iconic score alongside intergalactic favourites from ‘A Space Odyssey’ and Holst’s ‘The Planets’.

Roger will also discuss working with both Nolan and Zimmer, and there will be a Q+A for audience members to ask any questions they have.

SHEFFIELD CATHEDRAL
A PLACE FOR ALL PEOPLE

Safeguarding

Sheffield Cathedral Chapter is committed to making the Cathedral a safe place for everyone. If you have safeguarding concerns about a child or a vulnerable adult in the Cathedral, please speak directly to the Diocesan Safeguarding Adviser, Siân Checkley (07741 013 775), the Assistant DSAs, Elna Penttila (07871 796 682) or Rachel Tankard (07874 859 062) or the Dean, The Very Revd Abi Thompson (abi.thompson@sheffield-cathedral.org.uk), or contact one of the following confidential services:

Sheffield Cathedral Chapter and all who serve here seek to promote the wholeness of every person within God's loving purpose for us all. We want to make this a safe place for every member of the church community, whatever their age. We understand that it is the responsibility of each one of us to protect children, young people and adults from physical, emotional and sexual abuse, and from neglect. Together we can build a community where everyone can flourish.

If you would like some help working out the right place to go with a safeguarding concern, you can speak to the Cathedral Safeguarding Advocate, Angela Rees, who is available to chat most Sunday mornings.
